TO: Photographers submitting images to Montana Outdoors

SUBJECT: November-December 2016 issue call for photography

DEADLINE: Must be received by Friday, August 19, 2016.

Late submissions will not be considered.

Dear Photographers,

Thanks to all who submitted your images for the September-October issue. We are finalizing the layouts for this issue, and if your photos are selected to publish, you will receive a confirmation via email later this month. Here is the current photo call for our upcoming November-December 2016 issue:

- 1. In the Driveway: Essay by a retired wildlife biologist
Photos: Mountain lion tracks in snow, preferably over what could be a driveway.
- 2. Grizzly delisting: Article on why it's time to delist grizzlies in the Greater Yellowstone Area.
Photos: FWP grizzly management in the Yellowstone area; a group of grizzlies; grizzly sow and three cubs
- 3. Bison expansion out of Yellowstone National Park: Article on how FWP and others are working to allow limited expansion of bison out of the park.
Photos: Bison in Gardiner and West Yellowstone areas. Shots of bison in town, or leaving boundaries of the park. Both scenic portraits and management shots of bison (with helicopters, hazing, herding, etc.)
- 4. Outdoor portrait: Fisher (Martes pennanti)

Thank you for taking the time to include captions, credits, and keywords in your metadata within your digital images. If you are able, please include the keyword "ND16" in your metadata for each image. We look forward to reviewing your submissions. A reminder: Digital submissions will not be returned unless specifically requested.

Best wishes,

Luke Duran, Art Director

PLEASE NOTE: Digital submissions only. Do not e-mail photos to us.

Please review our updated submission guidelines for details at fwp.mt.gov/mtoutdoors/HTML/photographers.htm

DEADLINE: RECEIVED BY FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 2016. Late submissions will not be considered.
